

THE TRANSCRIPT.
ST. ALBANS.

Friday, Oct. 27, 1864.

POST-OFFICE NOTICE.

The report of the Hon. G. H. Rice, of South Hero, Railroad Commissioner, is to be printed at the St. Albans Daily Messenger office and will be undoubtedly executed in the usual typographical elegance and accuracy for which our co-temporaries is proverbial.

One of the noteworthy elections made since the General Assembly met, is that of the Rev. Pliny H. White, of Coventry, who was unanimously elected chaplain of the Vermont Senate. We know of no more fit selection than this, and it is a deserved compliment to a worthy and indefatigable laborer in the field of historical research as well as a self-denying and laudacious preacher of the gospel.

We regret, in common with a large circle of friends and acquaintances throughout the State, to hear of the death of Mahlon Cottrell, Esq., of Montpelier. Mr. Cottrell died at Kansas City, Missouri, Oct. 22nd, 1864, after an illness of several weeks. A tribute to his memory will appear in the next issue of the Green Mountain Freeman.

A squad of soldiers have been detailed to East Alburgh, and are guarding the Mississippe Bay bridge which is nearly a mile long.

The Montreal Telegraph publishes the following letter from Lieut. Bennett H. Young, commanding the party of raiders on St. Albans:

FREDERICKSBURG, C. I., Saturday, Oct. 21.

To the Editor of the Evening Telegraph:

Through the columns of your journal, I wish to make some statements to the people of Canada, regarding the recent operations in Vermont. I went there for the purpose of burning the town and surrounding villages, in retaliation for the recent outrages committed in the Shenandoah valley and elsewhere in the Confederate States.

"Centola" is the title of a new work of fiction by Hon. Daniel P. Thompson, of Montpelier, which we have not had the pleasure of seeing as yet.

Mr. H. S. Hood is the Captain of a military company recently formed by the students of New Hampton Institute at Fairfax. This company has regular drills and are making praiseworthy progress in the manual and company drill.

All the men of the Cavalry regiment who have served three years from date of muster, will be mustered out of service soon after the 18th of Nov., the period of service expiring on that day, by the decision of the War Department.

We are indebted to the obliging courtesy of the Hon. Charles W.illard, of Montpelier, for an early copy of the Bank Commissioner's Report for 1864.

WADDO AND CALISAYA BITTERS.—To ladies of delicate constitutions, those bitters are particularly adapted, for they will effectually cure headache, loss of appetite, dyspepsia, indigestion, lassitude of spirits, hysterics, dizziness, palpitation, sleeplessness, general debility, &c., &c.; and ladies who desire to avoid the suffering and inconvenience of those irregularities or organic obstructions which so many are suffering from, should not omit to regulate their systems by means of one or two bottles of these celebrated Bitters. They are pleasant to the taste, while they invigorate and strengthen. In fact, the use of one bottle will make you feel like a new person. Try us For sale by all druggists and respectable dealers.

Attention is directed to the official advertisement of the Rev. Dr. Fay, Superintendent of Common Schools in St. Albans.

ALBURGH ON THE QUI VIVE.—The citizens of Alburgh met Oct. 21st. The meeting was called for the purpose of considering the best means to guard against and protect the inhabitants from robberies or raids, &c.

HON. H. H. Reynolds was appointed Chairman and Jed P. Ladd Secretary.

A vote was taken requesting the Selectmen to call for 150 muskets, to be used by the citizens of Alburgh in defense of the border.

The following committee was appointed to receive names of volunteers for said company; A. C. Butler, Jed P. Ladd, Stephen Hoag, S. J. Bowles and Ezra Babcock.

A number of gentlemen stepped forward and signed the enlistment contract, after which the meeting adjourned until Friday, Oct. 28, at 6 o'clock P. M.

The Burlington Times says: Gen. T. G. Pitcher has been relieved, at his own request, we believe, from the office of Provost Marshal General of Vermont. He is succeeded by Major W. Austine, U. S. A., whose reputation as a most efficient officer and courteous gentleman is a sufficient guarantee to the people of the State, that his new duties will be discharged with the same prompt energy, and indefatigable industry that distinguished him in his former position.

Gen. P. T. Kimball, of Fayetteville, had $1,000 stolen from his house one night last week. Two hundred dollars of it was in his pocket, and $800 which he had taken from the bank that day, under his pillow!!
